Foreword . . .

"THE people of this Province have established schools for the primary purposes of developing the character of our young people, training them to be good citizens, and teaching them the fundamental skills of learning necessary for further education and adult life."

As the members of the Graduating Class of 1960 leave Victoria High School to go on to further education and training, or to seek employment in the adult world, we trust that during your school years you have developed worthy traits in your character as well as the qualities that make a good citizen.

Today, young Canadians are entering a world whose technological and political horizons have broadened far beyond anything conceived a generation ago. Whatever walk in life you may choose to follow we believe that you have acquired a foundation, during your time in this school, that will stand you in good stead for the years ahead. However, it is up to you to continue to cultivate those inner resources of mind and spirit that will give you the satisfaction of a life well spent in purposeful activities, and well used in service for others.

Valedictory . . .

FOR US high school is ending; no one should be sorry to leave! Rather, we should be glad to go to serve society actively; some immediately and some later after further specialized training.

We should be happy to have had three fortunate years at Victoria High School in study, play, and friendship. We should feel honoured to have had many excellent teachers. Knowledge, perspective, interest, encouragement; all these they have shared with us. Even more we should appreciate the help, values, and guidance of our parents.

Our attention is now focused on the future. Some of us will become labourers, some teachers, and some perhaps statesmen. Whatever our calling the beneficial influence of our education and the years of inspiration and friendship of our teachers will help us to become good Canadian citizens and give us the will "to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield".

Y-Teens

The Y-Teen girls in blue and white have had a very productive year under the sponsorship of Miss Jones and Mrs. Watson.

Speakers, sing songs, and skits were very popular in the noon hour meetings. To raise money for a Malta orphan they sold ice-cream bars, held a cake sale and a noon-hour dance, "Twichy Toe Twirl". They ushered at many events throughout the school year as well as "guarding" the Lost and Found.

To the British Columbia Y-Teens conference Victoria sent six delegates who learned a lot (especially how to have fun).

The Y-Teens are following their cheerful executive: President, Charlene Love; Vice-President, Maureen Tilson; Secretary, Dandy Dodd, and Treasurer, Bev Lewis.

Alpha Hi-Y

Alpha had a very successful year under the capable sponsorship of Mr. Reid. Canvassing for the Kiwanis Village Program, painting the stadium bleachers, selling pop and chips at Totem games and dances, and holding a giant cake sale have been Alpha's chief undertakings for this year. Bill Hobbis, president; Bill Hosie, Vice-President; Jack Collins, Secretary; and Mike Gallo, Treasurer, have comprised this year's executive.

Beta Hi-Y

President, Steve Holborn; Vice-President, Brian Wallace; Secretary, Dave Haegert; Treasurer, Ted Espley; Padre, Keith Hart, and Sergeant-at-arms, Sherman Quan composed this year's executive.

Again, as in the past, Beta dedicated itself to improving its record of school service. Programming the Lower-Upper Island basketball tournament, selling pop at dances and basketball games, canvassing for the Kiwanis Village Program, and publishing the popular TOTEM BOOSTERS were among the many projects undertaken by the club. The "BETANICKS" again undertook to sweep off the tennis courts.

With the retirement of Mr. J. Andrews as club sponsor, Beta Hi-Y wishes to extend the appreciation of all its members for his fine work and looks forward to another successful season with Mr. D. Smyth as new sponsor.

Our Congratulations to Vic High on

Choir

1959-60 has proved to be a smashing year for the Choir. In December, along with Drama and Orchestra members, it succeeded in producing the "Song of Norway".

Since then, the members, under the expert direction of Miss Douglas, have travelled to Vancouver where they competed in the B.C. Music Festival, held in the immense Queen Elizabeth Theatre. Here they had fun, not only in performing themselves and winning a second and a third place, but also in hearing a number of the finest choirs in B.C.

In the Victoria Music Festival, they swept the boards by taking first place in every class in which they were entered and brought home a total of $75 to the school.

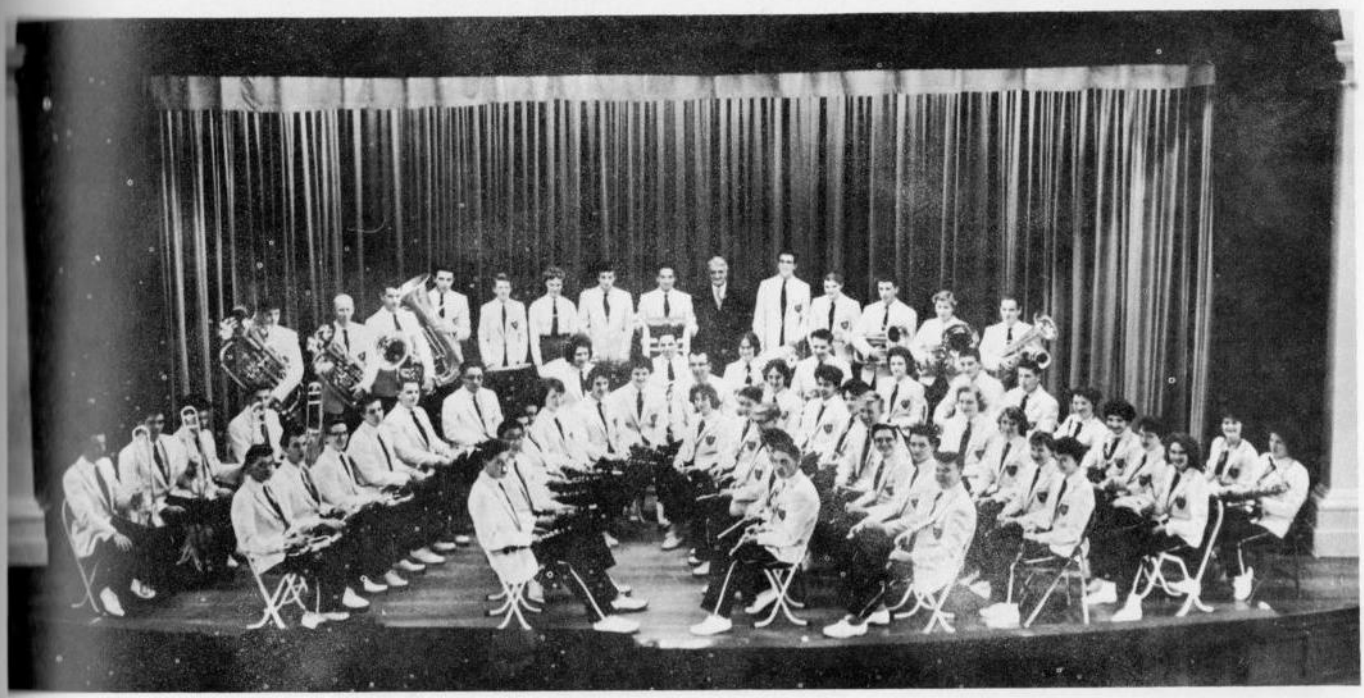
To finish a most successful year, they sang at the Art Centre on May 16 and at Royal Roads on May 23.

Band

As the results of the Victoria Music Festival revealed, the Victoria High Band had a very prosperous year. In both its classes it succeeded in tying Mt. View for first place.

Under the fine leadership of Mr. Grant and the executive, Roberta Lister, Tommy Burgess and Sheila Haire, the members performed at Wilkinson Road Mental Home and Beacon Hill Park. In addition, they put on their annual Band Concert on March 9.

In finishing a very good year, they travelled to Sumner, Washington, for an exchange concert.



Orchestra

Having completed another busy year under the able direction of Mrs. D. Evans, our orchestra has participated in various functions in and out of the school.

High points in the year for the orchestra came when they played twice as guests of the Victoria Symphony Orchestra at the Royal Theatre, and when they made their trip to Bellingham.

Our orchestra again proved its self-sufficiency by sponsoring its own money-raising tea. $600 was raised for a set of tympani.

Dr. Nicola Goldschmidt was here to audition the orchestra for the Vancouver International Festival.

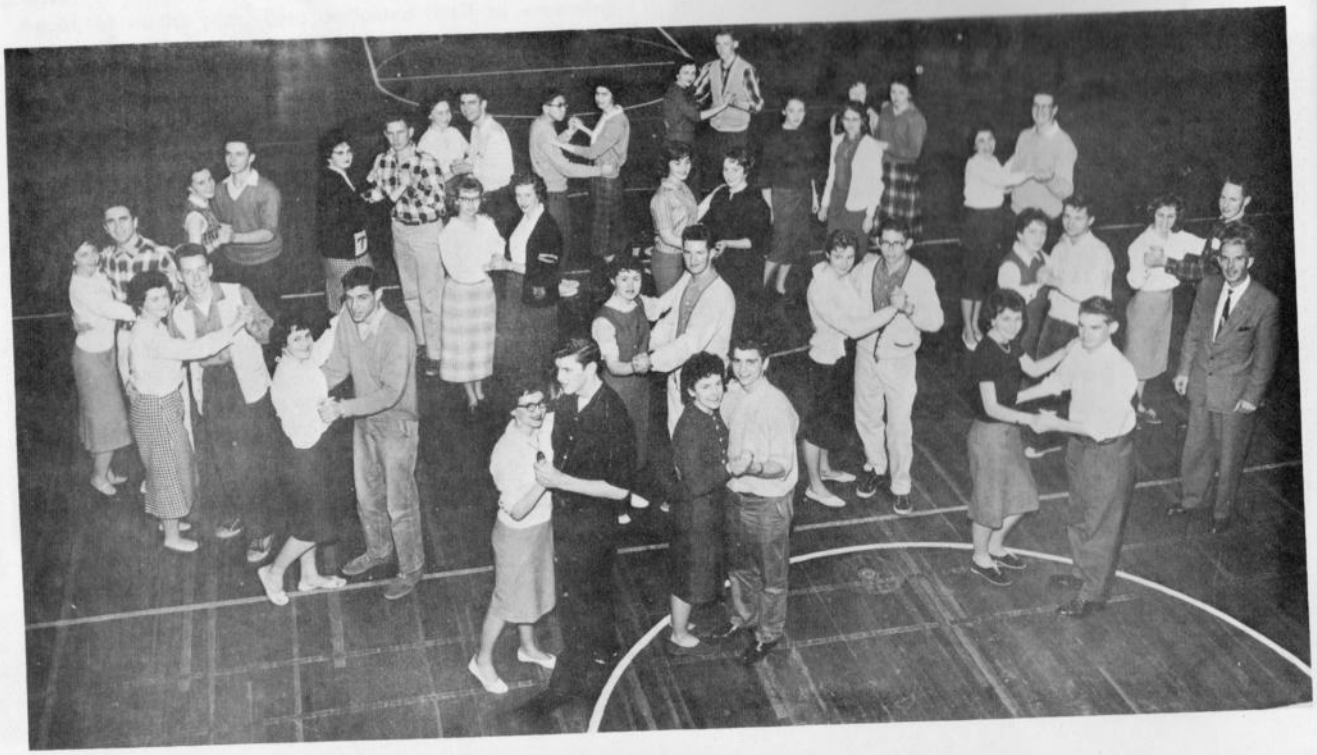
Our orchestra went to Bellingham and received first place out of twenty bands and orchestras.

In Victoria's festival we received a high standing with a mark of 93. No other orchestras competed.

This year's officials were: President, Corinne Field; Vice-President, Margaret Morgan; Librarian, Ruth Ireland, and Advertising Manager, Fergus Heywood.

Grad Dance Team

Through the efforts of Miss Bassett and Mr. G. Stark this year's Grand Dance Team put on a fine display at graduation. The club executed a Tango, a Samba and the Viennese Waltz.



Square Dance Club

Tuesday and Thursday lunch hours have been set aside during this year for the Square Dance club. Under the capable direction of president Bill Hosie, vice-president Dave Goodenough, and Secretary Sandra Duff, the club has enjoyed many good times, including the annual Square Dance Festival in which two squares were entered. The club's members owe a lot to their sponsors, Mr. H. D. Wallis and C. A. Trotter.

Calamity Players

Under the leadership of Cathy Hatch and the sponsorship of Mr. Mayne, the Calamity Players had a hilarious year. Their skits advertising Booster Passes, the "Song of Norway", the "Co-ed Dance" (anyone for Baby Dolls!) the "Band Concert" and Sports Day and Dance were well received by the students.

Camosunet

Along with co-editors, Norma Smith and Barbara Oldnall, and staff adviser, Mr. Murphy, the journalism class produced five delightful editions of the Camosunet.

Maureen Tilson and Bill Stanbury both did an excellent job in covering girls and boys sports respectively.

Thanks are due to the girls of Div. 10, who provided the Ad Solicitors for the year.

Thespians

Despite the fact that this "dramatic" society had only fourteen members, the energetic sponsorship of Mr. Mayne and the able leadership of their executive: Bill Hosie, President; Sylvia Mobey, Vice-president; Jane Gilliland, Secretary; Ivan Waldal, Treasurer; and Cathy Hatch Scribe, sparked them to a successful year.

This year's Thespians were featured in nearly all dramatic and "calamatic" productions. Their main highlight of the year, however, was their initiation in May '59. Their membership problem will be overcome for the next year by the indoctrination of a lot of Grade tens and elevens to be initiated in May.

ISCF

Better known as ISCF, the Inter-School Christian Fellowship in Vic High is only one of one hundred and eighty such clubs across Canada. The motto of ISCF is "To know Christ and make Him known". Through a variety of programmes such as discussions, Bible studies, guest speakers, and socials, the club has been seeking to do this.

Meetings are held every Thursday noon in Room A201 in the Technical Building. Cash Hampton, president, officiates at each meeting, while other executive members are: Vice-President, Carol Dent; Secretary-Treasurer, Ruth Hornby; Missionary Secretary, Linda French; Publicity Secretary, Dorothy Padgett; Scripture Union Secretary, Dave Anderson, and Social Convener, Grant Frewing.

Student Librarians

Acting in the capacity of Student Librarians are these hard-working boys and girls, who have given up many mornings, noon hours, and afternoons. Included among their many tasks are: preparing books for circulation, checking books in and out, and shelving all returned books.

Senior French

After a year's lapse, the Senior French Club is in full swing again. This year's Executive includes Terry Leung as President; Stuart Brown, Vice-President; Anne Kemp, Secretary-Treasurer, and a Program Committee consisting of Inger Lauesen and Pauline Owens. Major projects carried out by the Club included a special luncheon, a French auction, a puppet show, and a wonderful evening meeting. French records, songs, and games form an integral part of the regular meetings. Our thanks go to our excellent sponsor, Miss Macqueen, and also to Miss van Engel and Mrs. Hodson for helping us make it such a success.

Future Teachers' Club

Under the capable guidance of sponsors, Mr. C. Goulson and Miss B. M. Sutton, the Future Teachers' Club enjoyed another informative year.

The meetings, held every other Wednesday, were conducted by the President, Jane Gilliland. Jane was ably assisted by Vice-President Margaret Austin and Secretaries Lila Israel and Judy Wakeham. John Sargent and Brian Wallace acted in the capacity of Assistants to the Executive.

Speakers, films and discussions provided variety in the program. In November the club took a field trip to the elementary schools and in April they visited the junior high schools.

John Sargent and Jane Gilliland represented the club at the annual Future Teachers' Conference held in January at U.B.C. in Vancouver.

Future Nurses' Club

This year's Future Nurses' Club has completed an active and highly successful year.

Activities included a home nursing course, field trips to the various hospitals, the compiling of a scrapbook on nursing, the showing of films on nursing, and lectures by guest speakers.

The executive, president, Julie Lockett; vice-president, Bev Lewis; secretary, Linda Tovey; programme committee head, Marilyn Arnold, and project committee head, Lila Israel, on behalf of all the club's members, wishes to extend sincere appreciation to Mrs. Martin, school sponsor, and Miss Henly, the school nurse, for the guidance they gave the club during the year.

Under the sponsorship of Miss van Engel, the Junior Red Cross completed a successful year of service. Executive members for the first half of the year were Darlene Hargreaves, president, and Pat Hill, secretary. The present executive consists of Tony Burrows, president, Joy Phillips, vice-president, and Terry Martindale as secretary.

Throughout the year the Club made several contributions to aid the underprivileged. The annual fund drive yielded a grand total of four hundred and thirty-five dollars for World Refugee Children, while members made stuffed and wooden toys for children's institutes and health kits for emergency centers. Our adoptee for the Chinese Hospital enjoyed a Christmas Party and monthly visits from several of the Junior Red Cross members.

Because of Vic High's outstanding work in the Junior Red Cross we held the Dennis Brown trophy for the month of March. The members who have contributed much of their time and energy to the success of this year are: Pauline Owens, Virginia Ko, Karen Logan, Sybil Jones, Ann Moyer, Betty Moran and Lyle Kong.

United Nations Club

Under a new sponsor, Mr. G. Stark, and the able executive of John Sargent, President; Terry Leung, Vice-President; Inger Lauesen, Secretary, and Anne Kemp, Treasurer, the United Nations Club completed a very successful year.

Though operating under the severe handicap of few members, the club had many wide and varied projects which included selling UNICEF Christmas cards, the Inter-High debate, and providing the programme for a Rotarian Dinner. Besides all this they had weekly business meetings every Friday which also included programs of films, reports, discussions, and two guest speakers, Mr. Clark and Mr. Chatfield. All in all it can be said that the United Nations Club had a very good year.

Chess Club

Under the usual excellent sponsorship of Mr. Goulson, coupled with a fine executive consisting of Terry Leung, President; Joe Thompson, Secretary; and Ken McCartney and John Sargent, Executive Assistants, the Chess Club enjoyed another successful year.

This year's club had a paid-up membership of some seventy persons which included many newcomers to the game. Early in the year three delegates, Ken McCartney, Joe Thompson, and Mike Devlin, represented Vic High in the B.C. High School Class Championship at Qualicum Beach in which they placed respectively seventh, eighth and ninth, in a field of 52.

In the spring of this year Vic High competed for the Baines-Lewis Trophy, emblematic of City High School Chess supremacy. Although the final results were not yet known at the time of writing Vic High appeared to have recaptured the cup. Team members were Joe Thompson, Brad Bell, Simon Whitlow, Mike Devlin, Ken McCartney, and Terry Leung. Hickman Wong acted as a spare in one game. At present the tournament which decides the Club Championship is in action and it will provide a fitting finish for one of the Chess Club's best years.

Amateur Radio Club

(VE7AAG)

Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. R. T. Stark, VE7AAG has completed a most successful year. This year's executive: Si Nankivell, VE7BAF, President; Gordy "Key-clicks" Burleson, VE7BAV, Vice-President; and John White, VE7AAL, Secretary-treasurer, have aided Mr. Stark in his job of sponsor.

So far this year three club members have written and passed their "ham" exams and two-way contracts have been established with Alberta, Idaho, California, Oregon, Washington, and even B.C. All in all, 7AAG has completed a very good year.

Astronomy Club

Formed early this year by Jim Tayler, the Astronomy club has had a most successful year. Weekly meetings were held and many interesting talks were given by the more learned members! Outdoor meetings were also held for such rare events as the eclipse of the moon in March.

The club had a most capable executive. President Jim Tayler officiated at all meetings. All members gave interesting talks. Other members of the executive were Steven Horn, Vice-President; Dennis Davey, Secretary; Jim Nesbitt, Treasurer; and Gordon Pollard, co-ordinator. The club would like to thank Mr. Kellway for his kind sponsorship.

The Astronomers look forward to a prosperous 1960-61 year due to the fact that they will have all their members again next year and because a lot of new blood is expected from Central Junior High.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Graduating Class of 1960, being of sound mind and body, do find it desirable at this time to bequeath the following legacies to succeeding students:

Bill Hobbis leaves his height to Luigi Gallo.
Vic High wills the Howard Russell Cup to Oak Bay.
Ted Espley slides his rock to Roger Pick.
Steve Holborn leaves his grin to Pete Haylett.
Dennis Yardley finally leaves the 13 Club.
Carolyn Wild leaves her "gift of the gab" to Sylivia Mobey.
Norma Redfern leaves her winning smile to Dorothy Hosie.
Dave Haegert leaves his worries to next year's president.
Alan Oliphant leaves his late slips to Dave Bissett.
Duffy Sargison wills her alibis to Georgina Britton.
Simon Prinsenberg leaves his crewcut to Mr. Glover.
Barbara Oldnall wills Mr. Murphy to the next editor-in- chief.
Jane Gilliland leaves her delightful personality to Maureen Tilson.
Palle Jensen takes his magic wand with him.
Jamie Troy takes his bagpipes with him. (Thank Goodness!)
Roger Hopwood leaves his report card to the person who will destroy it in the fastest, most efficient manner.
Bonnie Kepner leaves her cheer sheets to Rosemary Tierney.
John Britt leaves the dark room drama to Bill Stanbury.
Terry Leung leaves his connaissance français to Genevieve Sawatsky.
Tommy Burgess leaves his tiny car to be wrecked.
Eric Carlsen leaves his linguistic larceny to Peter Vanderjagt.
John Sargent leaves his whirling wheels of wisdom to Simon Whitlow.
Judy Wakeham leaves her complexion to Kathy McMaster.
Barry Bowen leaves his briefcase to Kevan Hull.
Sandy Dodd twirls her baton to Kathy Clark.
Albert Mar leaves his money — gladly.
Keith Hart leaves his grapfruits to Bob Harris.
Brian Wallace leaves his beach parties to Hugh Skillings.

Sandra Glover—Sandra's quiet friendly manner is well known to us all,
For she's always there each morning to answer the whistle's call.

Jayne Lang—Our petite drummer who never missed a beat,
And made each game and practice really quite a treat.

Gary Yee—Only with a good drummer can the routine vary,
That's why we're proud and happy ours happens to be Gerry.

Majorettes

Beverly Lewis—Cute and capable, with an impish smile
Our co-captain Bev, who helped us in our style.

Sandra Jones—Sandy's carefree attitude and her winning way
Add much fun and glamour to our group each day.

Marilyn Arnold—A sweet face and pretty blonde hair,
That's our Marilyn, who's always there.

Elizabeth Sargison—Although she's quite a stranger to the majorettes this year,
Our practice is always brighter when "Duffy" shows up there.

Alix Esselmont—A cheery "good-morning", a giggle we all know
You can bet that it's Alix who adds to every show.

Joan Cannon—To our "Joanne" early mornings proved great pain
But her wit and personality gave us much to gain.

Sandy Dodd—Without our captain Sandy, we'd be at a loss,
For where else could we get a more devoted boss?

Linda Tovey—Linda's marching and her twirling are done with grace and ease,
Combined with her sweet smile, how could she help but please?

Diane Lawton—A little bit of England, an asset to the team,
That's cute and witty Diane, who's always on the beam.

Sarjeet Bains—An enthusiastic junior who has both grace and skill,
And adds to each performance, just a bit more thrill.

Pat Kelly—Cute little Pat who is rarely late
Has the marching and twirling the boys appreciate.

Karen Lendrum—A friendly popular miss, who everyone will agree
Makes our morning practice seem much less early.

Kathy Clark—Kathy's smart and skillful, has personality too,
To say she is an asset, would be no more than true.

Jenny Dark—We have never a dull moment when Jenny's around
For a friendlier, nicer Junior is seldom to be found.

Jill Heinrichs—This charming miss, with her pleasing ways,
Helps to add much joy, to those "very early" days.

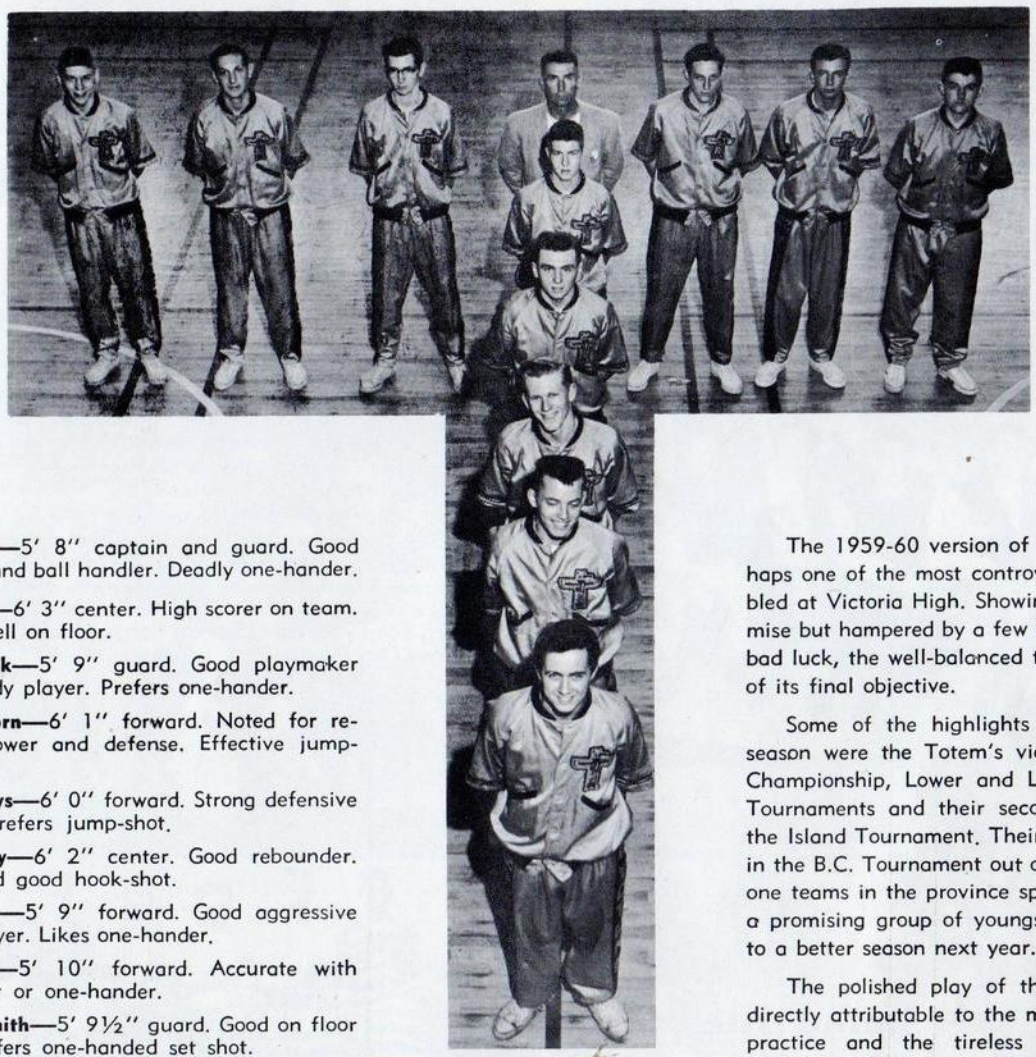
Totems



Bill Hobbis—5′ 8″ captain and guard. Good dribbler and ball handler. Deadly one-hander.

Keith Hart—6′ 3″ center. High scorer on team. Moves well on floor.

John Ballock—5′ 9″ guard. Good playmaker and steady player. Prefers one-hander.

Steve Holborn—6′ 1″ forward. Noted for rebound power and defense. Effective jump-shot.

Neil Worboys—6′ 0″ forward. Strong defensive player. Prefers jump-shot.

Ken Gregory—6′ 2″ center. Good rebounder. Developed good hook-shot.

Bill Mundie—5′ 9″ forward. Good aggressive hustling player. Likes one-hander.

Bob Harris—5′ 10″ forward. Accurate with jump-shot or one-hander.

Ollie Goldsmith—5′ 9½″ guard. Good on floor play. Prefers one-handed set shot.

Mike Gallo—5′ 6″ sparkplug on team. Fast on floor. Likes one-hander.

Dennis Tusar—6′ 1½″ strong player. Improved throughout season. Good one-hander.

The 1959-60 version of the Totems is perhaps one of the most controversial ever assembled at Victoria High. Showing unexpected promise but hampered by a few injuries and a little bad luck, the well-balanced team fell just short of its final objective.

Some of the highlights of the basketball season were the Totem's victories in the City Championship, Lower and Lower-Upper Island Tournaments and their second-place finish in the Island Tournament. Their ninth place finish in the B.C. Tournament out of one hundred and one teams in the province speaks for itself and a promising group of youngsters looks forward to a better season next year.

The polished play of this year's squad is directly attributable to the many hard hours of practice and the tireless coaching of Mr. Andrews. Again this year the Totems wish to pay tribute to their coach for only the Totems know how much he means to them!

Senior Rugby

The Senior Rugby team this year has played games against Shawnigan Lake, Oak Bay High, University School, Mount Newton High, Victoria University, H.M.C.S. Venture and Royal Roads. The year's record was quite good with the team winning 3, losing 7 and tying 2. Unfortunately, the Howard Russell Cup was lost in two straight games.

Cross Country

Thanks to the photographer's steady hand and quick camera, it has finally been possible to capture the fast moving Cross Country speed on film. These are the boys that you have often seen around the school, running through rain, snow, hail and stop-lights. Although this season starts early in September and continues right through until late in March, the squad never fails to practice every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Because of this stiff training under the watchful eye of their coach Mr. Hartley, our boys have defeated all mainland and island teams decisively. In the last two years only one race has been lost by our team. (The reason, as rumours have it, is that certain members of our team by the name of Alf Lincoln, Simon Prinsenberg, and Palle Jensen, stopped by at a girlfriend's house to have tea and crumpets.)

This year's leading runners are: John Valiant, Alf Lincoln, Eric Carlsen, Palle Jensen (captain), Simon Prinsenberg, and Gary Kidson. This year's Cross Country Team is truly one we can be proud of. Thank you, Mr. Hartley.

Table Tennis

Sponsored by Mr. Francis, the table tennis club, with 120 members, proved once again that a sport does not have to provide aches and pains and broken bones to be popular.

By defeating Mount Doug. High School, the Rep. Team, composed of Rick Pye, Derek Nutton, Albert Mar, and Terry Cox, became British Columbia High School champions.

Within the school, Rick Pye won the boys' single; and Margaret Clark won the girls' event for the second consecutive year. Alex Barloewen and Rick Pye, and Margaret Clark and Barbara Welsh won the boys and girls doubles tournaments respectively. Rick Pye controlled the boys' ladder tournament for seven consecutive months; while Roberta Davidson was edged out for only one month in the girls' tournament by Pam Bellak.

This year's club executive consisted of President Rick Pye, vice-president Norman Leong, and secretary Margaret Clark.

Curling

This year, under the capable hands of Mr. Hardie, the '59-'60 curling season was more successful than any previous year. Offices were held by Roger Pick, president, and Ted Espley, vice-president.

The league games were held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays with Vic. High having 17 out of the 32 rinks entered. On December 12, the Curling Rink sponsored a bonspiel which was won by a Vic. High rink skipped by Les Brice.

During the Christmas vacation the first Pacific Coast High School Bonspiel was held in Vancouver. A Vic High rink consisting of Les Brice, Roger Pick, Jack Firkins and Grant Hughes won the main event of the 56 rink 'spiel. It took place over 3 days and was played at Burnaby, New Westminster, and Vancouver curling rinks.

The league finished in March and was won by a Vic High rink skipped by Roger Pick. This rink, consisting of Jack Truman, Mel Dawson, and Ardy Glassford, went undefeated winning 14 straight games.

The competition for the CJVI trophy was the windup for this season. Vic High, for the third straight year, came through by defeating Mt. View 10-6 in the final. The team skipped by Roger Pick has last year's winner, Les Brice, playing third, and the strong front end of Ted Espley and Jack Truman.

Referees' Club

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Esselmont, the Referees' Club teaches the rules and regulations of certain sports to interested girls in order to enable them to assist in the running of these sports in the Girls' Inter-House Leagues.

This year's club members were active as referees in all girls' house sports, inter-high grass hockey games and inter-high softball games.

Junior Girls' Rep. Basketball

This year's team, ably coached by Miss Bassett, consisted of Chris Campbell, Bernice Edwards, Sherry Fahey (captain), Margaret Garrison, Heather Glover, Sandra Tutach, Margaret Puritch, Linda Robinson, Janice Sargison, Val Taylor, and June Williams.

Although playing in no definite league the team made a respectable showing for themselves by winning two of their four exhibition games.

Thanks go to Bil Stanbury and Kevan Hull for giving up their time to referee the girls' games.

Senior Girls' Basketball

The Senior girls' basketball team had a fine season under the capable coaching of Miss Bassett who is leaving this year. The team placed second in the inter-high league and qualified as one of the three Lower Island teams to compete in the Island Tournament at Ladysmith. Just missing third place, the team placed fifth on the Island. As eight players are remaining of which five are juniors, the team has its eye on the Island Championship next year.

Joanne Dark—guard, captain with much enthusiasm; this is her last year.

Gail Archibald—forward, Gail has been on the team for three years and her jump shot and rebounding have been assets.

Sandra Shaw—center, favourite shot is the pivot; good rebounder.

Jenny Dark—guard, team's mainstay for next year; has good long shot.

Barbara Welsh—good guard with a good long shot.

Carol Thomas—forward, Carol has been a determined player.

Susan Mason—forward, team's top scorer. Susan shows excellent ability for next year's team.

Fern Jaeger—forward, good all-round player with scoring ability.

Mary Pearson—center, Mary has shown great improvement and has much potential for next year.

Arlene Perry—guard, a very efficient player—good dribbler, check, and rebounder.

Rep. Hockey 1959

Happy hockey heroes of Vic High can rest on their laurels after a successful season, which has been the best for years.

Placing second in the Inter-High Hockey League, the Gold Team showed a fine team spirit and co-operation.

Highlighting the year was the good showing against Queen Margaret's school, a tough team, co-winners of the Bridgman Cup Series. Besides giving them a hard time, Vic High's team put feathers in their caps by scoring the only goal in the tournament against Queen Margaret school.

Other invitational games with private schools proved both educational and exciting. Enjoying these extra games very much, the Vic High girls hope to meet these schools again next year.

Last, but certainly not least, is the fine coaching and help of Mrs. Esselmont, which was greatly appreciated by the girls.

Bridgman Cup Team:

Val Hall—centre forward—high scorer aggregate, 6 goals.

Renée Poisson—centre half (captain)—excellent leadership, steady player.

Joan Barlow—right back—most dependable player.

Faye Fletcher—right half—most determined player.

Bette Flitton—right half—most keen player.

Marilyn Young—goalie—made an excellent start at a difficult position.

Junior Basketball Team

The Victoria High School Tepees climaxed a successful season by whipping the Esquimalt High Dockers 86-59 in a two-game total-point series. This was brought about when both teams finished regular league schedule in a tie for first place. Vic's Season was highlighted by a powerful offense and an equally tight defense.

Team members:

Wayne Mowatt (guard—mainstay on defense, has accurate two-hand set shot—real hustler.

John Lauvaas (forward)—his deadly jump shot as well as his equally potent set shot made him top scorer on team.

Robin Carlsen (guard)—thinker of the team, accurate one hander made him a potent threat on offense.

Asbjorn Waldal (guard)—his shooting, speed, and play-making make him a triple threat—mainstay of team.

Dave Gawley (centre)—his rebounding, passing, and shooting combined to make him one of top centres in league.

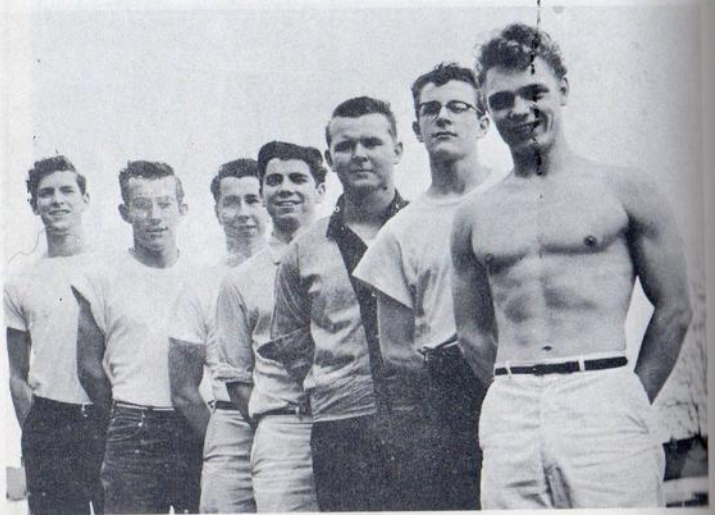
Dennis Morris (centre)—manoeuvres well in pivot—his rebounding made him a valuable asset on defense.

Jerry Cooper (guard)—good dribbler and shooter with speed to burn when driving.

Doug Belobaba—hard driving forward with accurate one hand set shot—lots of hustle here.

John McKeachie—good jump shot along with ability to pull down rebounds—tiger on defense.

Junior Soccer



Tumbling

This year's tumbling group placed third in B.C. High Schools Senior Boys' competition at U.B.C. A team composed of Bob Vosburgh, Peter Kelch, Bruce Hardy, and Pat Scott were this year's entrants. Peter Kelch finished fifth in the Senior Boys' all-round competition.

Bowling

Bowling in Vic High hit a new high in club membership, as one-sixth of the teeming populace of the school participated in this popular sport. This was achieved in spite of the fact that they had to walk to Capital City Bowladrome for the October to March season.

Bill Atkinson, president; and Mr. Evans, sponsor; led the club to new success in the form of several tournaments including a ten-game marathon, a house tournament, a student-teacher tournament, and a real gone "Scotch Doubles" set. They also held the Inter-High Championship for the second consecutive year. All in all the many members of this hep organization can really say they had a good year.

Mystery of Death

As I entered the library, my eyes were drawn to the large leatherbound volume reposing on the oaken desk. Faded gold letters on the spine proclaimed its title, "Wuthering Heights". The rich morocco binding caught the light in such a way as to create a whirpool of ever-changing design, deepening constantly, drawing me down, down . . . Was there perhaps some secret contained in the depths of this imaginary whirlpool; in this book, which could never speak of what it knew? "Don't be absurd," I chided myself. Nevertheless, my hand was gentle, almost reverent, as I lifted the cover. On the flyleaf was written, in a fine, spidery hand, "To my dear sister Mary, on her fourteenth birthday, November twenty-ninth, 1887." Near the bottom of the page, in the same feathery script were the words, "Passed to her eternal reward December twenty-third, 1887." This magnificent volume contained the records of two tragedies. The first was an account of a tragedy of misguided passions. The second told of a young life ended almost before it had begun; of a family left to mourn during the Christmas season; of memories; of sorrow. The story of this life destined to be ended so early; the story of surrounding the girl's tragic death; these were mysteries that would haunt the corridors of my mind henceforward. Perhaps the answer lies in the depths of the eddying whirlpool, or is pressed between the silent pages of "Wuthering Heights".

Winter

Winter has arrived, and as I walk along the beach and commons I feel its powerful but subtle strength take over nature. Quietly through the silence the dull pulse of a ship vibrates softly, as an old, grey freighter tugs through the mist. Silence hangs all around me, as a dense white cloud. Every sound is magnified. I hear the low grunts of sleepy ducks, as they float in the steel grey water. Even the sea is silent, and only whispers at my feet. The driftwood is dark with moisture, clearly defined against the damp grey sand, austere and lonely. The sea slides in beneath it like mercury, a great grey calm warped with swells. Receding, it leaves an amber margin of seaweed, twisted to the contours of the shingle beach. Wet ochre cliffs rise up behind it, clothed in the soft velvet of brown-red grass. Above the cliffs the grass is light green-gold dewed with melting hoar-frost. A few timid kildeer pipe in fear as they flutter off the ground. Among the fire-twigged trees naked in their misery, a few drab birds perch shivering. Everything—each bird, each tree, each blade of grass is purged by the cold bright kiss of the winter sun. Through the silent air drifts the sweet fragrance of the dormant earth, cold and fresh. It seems as though the very earth is resting from the arduous toil of the summer. From the grey-blue sky, clouds stare down, white in the dimness. They see only their own reflections in the ripples, for all else is still in winter.

A Friend

Have you ever stopped to wonder
What we'd be without a friend?
With everyone hating each other,
I'm sure this world would end.

A friend will see you through each mood
By saying what is right
To get you to your normal self
Without a single fight.

A friend is like a sister dear,
A father, mother too,
Who treats you with such kindness,
And tells you what to do.

And when the world is lost from you,
You'll find her waiting there;
To make your troubles meaningless,
And vanish in the air.

Whenever you are lonely,
And feeling so depressed,
Just call your friend right over,
And she will do the rest.

Without a friend you're no-one,
Just like a grain of sand
Drifting in a desert storm
Without a guiding hand .

Regardless of the make or kind,
No matter what the breed,
As long as you still have a friend,
You'll never have a need.

—Peggy McShane

Supremus

Alone on the summit ascendant,
While the clouds change from silver to gold
In the light of a sunset resplendent,
And a broad Paradise to behold;

Far below gleam the lights of the village
That sequesters itself in the vale,
And a far hill shows shadows of tillage,
But there ends humanity's pale;

Grand armies of evergreens standing
Beneath the fast-darkening sky,
Except where in mute reprimanding
Some flame-blackened regiments lie,

Small meadows of radiant greenness,
Bespeckled with yellow and blue;
And an aura of soothing sereneness,
Too peaceful and calm to be true;

From out of all this towers the giant,
All its massiveness bared to the light,
With a countenance stern and defiant,
Proclaiming untamable might;

Now high above even the mountain,
The candles of evening burn,
Their pattern a fairy-wrought fountain,
Each igniting itself in its turn;

No triumph or great exultation,
But a reverence, dumbfounded and awed
For this vision of wondrous creation
And the intimate closeness to God.

Fear

He had often scoffed those who had secret fears and those who frightened easily. To him, fear had no meaning for as he worded it, "Are we men or mice?" Now, ironically enough, he knew fear for lured by his brash boldness, he was tra pped in the old Walter's mine. There was no way out and "they" were coming closer and closer and . . . closer. Behind him was the coal-black darkness, which was like a heavy robe wrapped around him, hampering his desperate hurry to escape. Ahead of him was the same inky gloom of the endless, unlighted tunnel in which left his inner conscious screaming "Don't black out now! Control yourself!" Yes, he must control himself, but it was so easy to say. Somehow his knees felt weak and unable to support his trembling body. His mind refused to function properly and his paltry attempts to get away were ungraceful, clumsy movements. With terror mounting and his anxiety to run further, he paused for a few panicky moments to hear the dull, eerie echoes of slow footsteps coming closer, always closer. Every instinct in his body vibrated with the command "Run!" but he was so petrified with fear, he couldn't move. He felt cold with fear and yet hot with apprehension, waiting and listening to the muffled echoes of footsteps that were nearer now. His heart was uncontrollable and sounded too loud to his ears in the tomb-like, inky blackness enveloping him. Yes, now he knew the true meaning of fear.
